

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

All work done in the best style—
CORNWELL'S.

MILITARY MEETING.—The citizens of the 3d Ward are requested to meet this evening at Paddock's Park House, to complete the military organization of the 3d Ward.

OYSTERS.—Finch & Doughty are now prepared to serve up fresh Oysters, the latest and best, received fresh each day by Express, in any style desired by the lovers of these delectable bivalves. They commence to night. We can recommend their arrangements and their Oysters.

ROMANTIC COLORED.—A magnificent romantic bazaar has been prepared by the ladies of this city for the 31st Regiment. The embroidery is by the Misses Wittenberg, and is in their very best style. We are not advised as to who are the particular parties to whom the 31st is indebted for this magnificent gift. Mrs. Read, we know, however, was an active agent in the movement. It is now to be seen in the show window of Edsall, McDougall & Co., where it was, yesterday, admired by all passing by.

A REBEL CAPTAIN UNDER ARREST.—The Evening Journal, of yesterday says: "A scouting party from the 31st Indiana Regiment, stationed at Henderson, arrested, last Wednesday, a man who was recognized as a Captain in the rebel army. At the time of his arrest, the bowie knife he carried on his person, was covered with blood, as was also his clothing. He refused to account for these evidences of guilt, and was brought into camp, and placed under arrest."

PROMOTED.—We are delighted to learn that Capt. R. R. Stewart, of this city, who has been in command of a squadron of cavalry in Western Virginia, has been tendered the Majority in Col. Bridgeland's Cavalry Regiment, and has determined to accept.

Capt. Stewart is a gallant officer, of considerable experience, and will be a great acquisition to the new Regiment. The promotion is one well earned by valuable and laborious service with Gen. Rosecrans, in the recent campaign in Western Virginia.

Honor to whom Honor is Due.
MISS. ENTERTAIN.—Please state in your next issue, that the yarn we are distributing for knitting two hundred pairs of socks for the soldiers, is the liberal donation of Mr. Geo. F. Ellis.

TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 15th, 1861.
The Club met pursuant to adjournment, C. E. Hosford in the Chair.

After the adoption of the minutes, the Chairman of the committee on military organizations Mr. James Hook, made a report, which was unanimously adopted.

Captain A. H. Gainey of the 43d Indiana Regiment was introduced and made a very patriotic speech, pointing out the duty of every citizen on this occasion. His remarks were highly applauded.

On motion the meeting adjourned.
C. E. HOSFORD, Chair.
P. B. O'RIELEY, Sec.

A Tennessee paper says that Andy Johnson is a very bitter against the secession. Whether he is so or not, he has certainly had enough to make him bitter. A band of the rebels went to his house in East Tennessee with the avowed intention of hanging him, and, on finding him at home, they cut a hickory whip in the woods and scourged with it the body of his wife. Who could wonder if the outraged husband were to raise his clenched right hand towards God's firmament and swear to wage a war of extermination against the infernal mercenaries—Law Journal.

Can't be that men who have vaunted themselves on their chivalry, have thus degenerated to worse than savages? Yet this is not the only instance of the kind that we have read of. Surely secession makes devils of men. Don't our neighbors want to compromise with these "women whippers?"

MILITARY MATTERS.—Two companies of the 19th United States Infantry left Indianapolis on Thursday morning for Louisville. They have been assigned some special duty in Kentucky, under the command of Captain Mussey.

John Abraham Hendricks has been promoted to the Colonelcy of the 22d Indiana Regiment, vice Jefferson C. Davis, promoted to a Brigadier General's ship. James S. Hester has been chosen Lieutenant Colonel in place of Hendricks, promoted. The Captains of the regiment are instructed to select by ballot a successor to Major Tanner, whose unfortunate death created a vacancy in the third regimental office.

The ladies of New Albany have perfected arrangements for furnishing 600 pairs of socks for the 23d Regiment, Col. Sanderson, now at Paducah. The ladies of Jeffersonville will supply Capt. Caldwell's company in the same regiment, and the ladies of the localities in the 3d Congressional District are expecting to furnish the remainder necessary for the troops under Col. Sanderson's command.

The ladies of this part of the State are doing good work. Let those of other portions see if they cannot equal or excel them in patriotism and humane deeds.

The 1st Congressional District has sent about 3,000 to the war; the 2d about 3,500, and the 10th about 3,400. Other districts have done equally as well.

The New Albany Ledger of Tuesday evening says: "The 34th Regiment, Col. Ashbury Steele, now encamped at Joe Holt, will take up the line of march to-day or to-morrow for Salt River, where they enter Kentucky and move forward to join Gen. Rosecrans, in the interior of Kentucky."

CHARLES CRUFT
Oct. 19, 1861.

HEADQUARTERS 10th REGIMENT,
CAMP VIGO, Oct. 18, 1861.

Grocery and Saloon keepers are ordered not to sell any intoxicating liquors, in any quantity whatever, to the soldiers now quartered in Camp Vigo. Any one knowingly violating this order will be arrested and brought to camp to be severely dealt with.

By order of
WM. E. MCLEAN,
Lieut. Colonel commanding Camp Vigo.

OYSTERS AND GAME.—H. M. Pratt, who has charge of Kern's Restaurant, is winning golden opinions from the Boas Vivants of the city by the recherché manner in which he prepares the most savory roasts, stews, fries and broils. In the expressive language of Sam Slick, you might search creation over without finding Pratt's ditty.

POLITICS IN EDGAR COUNTY.—A singular spectacle is presented to the people of Edgar county, Ill., and one which would strike us with astonishment were we not acquainted with the peculiarities of the Secessionists. Geo. Larkin, who never voted anything but an unscrupulous Democratic ticket, is now a candidate for the office of County Judge of Edgar county. But he happens to take sides with the Government against treason. He finds arrayed against him such men as A. M. Green, W. D. Latchaw, and those who to-day are Union sentiment in a Democrat. These men can find nothing to accuse Larkin of except that he is in favor of a vigorous effort to suppress the rebellion, which is seeking to destroy the Government.

The people of Edgar county should think of this and ask themselves what has Larkin done that these men array themselves against him? Has it come to this that a man must be excommunicated in Edgar county, simply because he is for his country against traitors?

FRESH MEATS.
JAMES CHAMBERS, dealer in Groceries and Provisions, northwest corner of Second and Ohio Streets, will keep constantly on hand, during the Winter, a good supply of Fresh Meats, Beef, Pork, &c., which he will sell at the lowest market price.

MANTUA MAKING.—Miss M. ROWLAND would announce to the ladies of Terre Haute and vicinity, that she has resumed the Mantua Making business, in the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Groverman, on Ohio street, between Third and Fourth, where she is prepared to receive orders from her former friends and patrons.

Having just received from New York the latest Paris fashions, she is prepared to furnish work of a character that cannot fail to please the most fastidious.

Lost.—On yesterday evening on Fourth street, between Poplar street and the Post Office, a part of a brass instrument, consisting of a straight shaft, about six inches long with a German silver mouth piece on it. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at Crisler's Jewelry store.

Oct. 12, 1861.

Oyster Oysters!!
Ralph Sprague, will, from now until the close of the season, be daily in the receipt of fresh OYSTERS of the best brands, which he will sell by the can or half can, at the lowest rates. He will also serve them up in any style as ordered, on short notice, at his Saloon, one door south of the Stewart House.

October 11, 1861.

HATS HATS!!—T. H. LOWMEYER, who is a practical Hatter, and successor to Joseph C. Yates, corner of Fifth and Walnut Streets, has received his Fall style of hats and has now on hand and is manufacturing to order the latest style of Fall and Winter Hats at prices ranging from two dollars upwards.
